

Yan Tieying

Partner

Email: yantieying@vtlaw.cn

Location: Shenzhen

Profile

Corporate & Capital Markets

Asset Management and Mergers & Acquisitions

Dispute Resolution

Miss Yan Tieying owns rich working experience. Miss Yan worked in military enterprise, national economic management department, financial management department early or late. Obtained three management achievements in national and provincial level, and wrote an article, which was fully published in Xinhua Digest and put into China Economic Library. Understand national economic operation procedure, own conscientious working style, analyze and grasp the direction of law projects and cases in all aspects, accumulate rich experience in project operation and lay firm foundation for success in litigation (arbitration) and non-litigation (acquisition, reorganization, merger and listing). Since acted as lawyer in 1992, Miss Yan successfully handled various cases involved with international, domestic, foreign-funded, state-owned, private enterprises and company law, contract law, architecture law, intellectual property, maritime trade, completed reorganization, acquisition, merger of many projects, and acted as law consultant of international, domestic, foreign-funded, state-owned, private enterprises and investment project consultant of government. In recent years, Miss Yan used knowledge and skills relating to psychological consultation in the field of marriage and family, rescued many families that might come apart, and handled rational divorce for those families that could not be maintained indeed. The services provided in impartial division of property, protection of legal interest of children and legal inheritance have exceeded ordinary legal services and shown significant breakthrough and meaning. The relevant cases were reported in series in Shenzhen TV, and some cases were reported in succession in Shenzhen and Hong Kong media. Keep good cooperation relations with several law firms in foreign countries and Hong Kong.

Education

Postgraduate of civil and commercial law, China University of Political Science and Law

Senior psychological consultant, Psychological Consultation Training Center, Wuhan University Postgraduate of civil and commercial law, China University of Political Science and Law
Senior psychological consultant, Psychological Consultation Training Center, Wuhan University

Practice Area

■ Corporate ■ Real estate ■ Finance and securities ■ Foreign investment
■ Marriage and family (inheritance),
■ Intellectual property ■ Corporate law consultant ■ Governmental affairs

Language Skills

Chinese English
